

Seminario del corso Jean Monnet:

EVA - Environmental Valuation and Accounting

26 GIUGNO 2020

THE EARTH'S MATRIX – HOW CLIMATE CHANGE RELATES TO PEACE, SECURITY, DEVELOPMENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS

PROF. GRAMMENOS MASTROJENI (ITALIAN DIPLOMAT AND PROFESSOR)

-The seminar will cover the following four topics:

-The principle of global interdependence

Geographic and systemic global interconnectedness, describing links between the state of the environment and societal dynamics.

- What if we do not take care of the environment?

Projected scenarios of climate change and their foreseeable impact on migrations, peace, security and economic performance.

- What if we decide to care?

How protecting the environment and harnessing climate change will oblige us to build justice and, hence, peace, security, and quality of life.

- Where do we stand?

A brief overview of the international negotiations on climate change and related decisive issues.

DALLE 9.00 ALLE 13.00 E DALLE 14.00 ALLE 18.00

IN CONFERENZA SU SKYPE AL LINK:

HTTPS://JOIN.SKYPE.COM/JYNJKTTQKV2F

PER ULTERIORI INFORMAZIONI CONTATTATECI: EVA@UNIGE.IT

